

'With Love From' is inspired by the joy I get from making gifts and blocks for others. So much of my sewing is for giving away - for bees, swaps and gifts. I love the process of sewing for others - from choosing the pattern and fabric, to the person being on my mind as I cut, press and sew, and finally to popping it in the post or wrapping it up for giving. It's a privilege and a joy, to be able to make for others.
